Big Mistake

Monica

Gave you a chapter of my Life, I wish that I could rewrite all the shit that was done in the dark finally came to light ten years I was with you, I remember everything you put me through and to think, that I'm the blame, for thinking you would change I made... the biggest mistake, biggest mistake to think.... that you would change, you would change say bye bye, what was this all for make no mistake you wont be my mistake no more
make no mistake you wont be my mistake no more You can go and run to her, cuz I don't wanna see yo face (I don't wanna see your face) it reminds me of the scars,that can't be erased these years in an empty room, constanly reminds me of you and to think that I'm the blame for thinking you would change
I made... the biggest mistake, biggest mistake
sayin bye bye, what was this all for
make no mistake you wont be my mistake no more
make no mistake you wont be my mistake no more I'm saying goodbye (goodbye) to all the memories (to all the memories) I regret even trying, to give you a chance I'm not perfect everybody makes mistakes but the one I may have made was choosing you after we were through,Ohhhhhh I..........
I made the biggest mistake, biggest mistake assuming that you would change, you would change sayin bye bye, what was this all for
make no mistake you wont be my mistake no more And I know that I made the biggest mistake, biggest mistake to think that you would change, you would change
make no mistake you wont be my mistake no more
