

Obsession (Early Version)

Killing Joke

London, New York, Paris, Tokyo
All is one with the multi-nationals
Total monopolies I can sink or swim
Adrenalin is rushing through every action Whole nations crave for release from the suspense
And I explode in you, my beautiful obsession I've been dreaming all your nightmares
Holocausts, invented fantasies
We build the tower, tower falls down
All my dreams come true Sweet Jesus and Mohamed
Disputes between the boys
