

Save Myself

The Sam Willows

Mama always told me I should be the light out at sea
Shining in the dark when someone's tired and in need
So I'm always the shoulder where anyone can lean
Oh where do I turn now that I'm sinking into the deep
    Somebody save me, save me from myself
I can't break free from the cards I've been dealt
    So good at helping when it's somebody else
    Just save me, cause I can't save myself
        Save
        Save
        Save myself
        Save
        Save
        Save myself

Truth is that I'm hurting but I'll turn to what I was told
    I don't have to carry every burden all on my own
    I'm braver, I'm bolder than I was before
Oh I'll light a fire I'll light a beacon out in the cold
    Somebody save me, save me from myself
I can't break free from the cards I've been dealt
    So good at helping when it's somebody else
    Just save me, cause I can't save myself
        Save
        Save
        Save myself
        Save
        Save
        Save myself
    Come now weary heart
    I wanna hear you with every beat
Come now steely lungs and be the choir louder than the sea
    Somebody save me, save me from myself
I can't break free from the cards I've been dealt
    So good at helping when it's somebody else
    Just save me, cause I can't save myself
        Save
        Save
        Save myself
        Save

Save
Save myself
Save
Save
Save myself
Save
Save
Save myself
