

Trying to Find You

Josh Levi

if i had a penny every time i feel for someone like you i'd have one cents remain and if the sky suddenly changed and was never blue my love for you would be the same for your love was it something i did babe to make you run away
(run away, run away, oh.)
what is love with out my teammate
now you seem so far away (far away, far away, far away, oh. far away , far away yeah.) oh right here were you left me
oh where 'd you go do you love me?
oh don't you that i cant breathe trying to find you (x3) oh, no, no, no, no, no no, no, no, no, no, no, no no, no, no, no, no if i said every word i fell bout you oh i'd be speechless cause every time i reminisce about yesterday oh, tomorrow im breathless, yeah for your love was it something i did babe
to make you run away
(run away, run away, oh.)
what is love with out my teammate
now you seem so far away
(far away, far away, far away, oh. far away , far away yeah.) oh right here were you left me
oh where 'd you go do you love me?
oh don't you that i cant breathe trying to find you (x3) oh would you come back cause the ground is off the air and i cant find you baby, oh now i compromised the love the rain theyre both apart of out life so love theres nothing better than you oh right here were you left me oh where 'd you go do you love me?
oh don't you that i cant breathe trying to find you (x3) oh trying to find you im trying to find you woah ohh
