

Answer

Tickle Me Pink

Tell me in simple words
Everything you thought you'd never say
Make me understand
Beyond the lies that there's a master plan 'Cause every night I sleep alone
I will admit it's getting old
Just lyin here it feels so cold
When you're not pickin up your phone
How could I have trusted you?
And everythin I thought I knew of loyalty The answer deep inside me
Is rippin me apart
The truth of who you are How could anyone who said those things
You said to me move on?
I just need a true goodbye
To close my eyes to sleep until the dawn 'Cause every night you left me there
I'd wonder if you even cared
I'd wait for you while you enjoyed
The lonely words that you employed
This can't be reality, when everythin
You meant to me was loyalty The answer deep inside me
Is rippin me apart
The truth of who you are The answer deep inside me
Is eatin up my heart
I don't know who you are 'Cause every night you left me there
I know what I'm worth inside
I wonder if you even cared
You can't take that away, you have no pride You have no right
You have no right
To tear me down The answer deep inside me
Is rippin me apart
The truth of who you are The answer deep inside me
Is eatin up my heart
I don't know who you are I cant breathe, your demands are crushin me
Im trapped inside your warm sense of reality
I go inside but then you take the rest of me
That can never be
