Remembering

Kathryn Calder

Out of abandon into the blue
It hit me, hit me blind
Cutting me down swing by swing til I gave
But still it's something worth rememberingCatching the breeze while holding the sun
We make the silence heard
Shadows stretch as far as we can be tall
As long as someone's here rememberingClouds will shift and roll
We are carried on the air between us
Time will smoke us out but it's really good
to see you here like this
Clouds will shift and roll
We are carried on the air between us
Time will smoke us out but it's really good to be here just like thisAlways so heartfelt after the fact
I held I held it back
Never mind it's all been lived and relived,
Still it's something worth rememberingClouds will shift and roll
We are carried on the air between us
Time will smoke us out but it's really good
to see you here like this
Clouds will shift and roll
We are carried on the air between us
Time will smoke us out but it's really good to be here just like thisHere comes the smoke
Here comes the smoke
We're burning low, we're burning low,
Here comes the smoke
