

Low Down

Collard Greens & Gravy

[Incomprehensible] You leave me hanging high
    Lost my sense to confide
    Blanks, confused and empty
Yet overcome with a relieving sigh Silence, deafening silence
    Wicked world running through your head
    Tired of second guessing
    What I did or what it was I said Ohh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Anchor my soul no more, low down On the outside running smooth
    Of a gutless cold machine
    Although, I saw it coming
This soon, I didn't think I'd see Just come out and tell me
    You ain't gonna break my will
    You're water under the bridge now
    Lying dormant, dead and still Ohh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Anchor my soul no more, low down [Incomprehensible] My eyes can no longer be blackened
    My smile can no longer break
    As far as I can throw you
I wouldn't trust you 'cause your so damn fake Let's get somethin' straight here
    Get the fuck outta my way
    Forever my stone will be rollin'
No matter what ya do or say Ohh, ohh, ohh, ohh
    Anchor my soul no more, low down
