Ctrl Z

Sandra Szabo

When I was still a teenager
I moved away from home Far away where I could make it on my ownBut nobody told me, nobody told me That this is how I someday could feel Nobody told me, nobody told me
The way we made this world can make you feel lonelyHere I am, oh
Far away from what I used to know
I guess choices come with consequences
Choices don't come with Ctrl Z's but I got this I was young and adventurous and nothing could stop me from running towards big city lights like you do when you're freeBut nobody told me, nobody told me the important things in life are not what you might think Nobody told me, nobody told me
What to do when I miss the old memoriesHere I am oh
Far away from what I used to know
I guess choices come with consequences
Choices don't come with Ctrl Z's
but I got thisSmart girls like me they got this Clever girls come around they make it Here I am oh
Far away from what I used to know
I guess choices come with consequences
Choices don't come with Ctrl Z's
but I got thisSmart girls like me they got this Clever girls come around they make it
