Katykat

Braid

Sorry I threatened you
She said
Walked awhile
And hid in the bushes whenever
You saw headlights
And I knew you were scared
And when I saw you in the hall
You were laughing like you never even noticed me
Knew it wasn't more than physical
I was tongue tied
And timid
Until your
Whirly girlish giggleShe said
You hid in the bushes
When you saw headlights
Because you were scared.Something about power
When I broke the glass
She said you were scared
When I broke the glassSaid it was nothing
I would ever know
Said it wasn't physical
You just liked each other
