Scars Of Life

My thoughts
I hold back the truth that's unspoken
It keeps pulling me down
As the seasons change within me
Im coming aroundIt's all these things I say to you
I feel nothing
It's all these things I said I'd do
I do nothing
They're only empty wordsYour head
Is filled with so much shit thats unwanted
It's surely wasting away
Your first step on a path that's a dead end
I can't understandIt's all these things I say to you
I feel nothing
It's all these things I said I'd do
I do nothing
They're only empty wordsI take from you
A life you only wish you knew
The feelings inside you rage
As you dream of the escape
This someone that you call yourselfThe feelings inside you rage
As you dream of the escape
This someone that you call yourselfNow, these chains are not made of you
Now, theres no one to hold on to
Now, the hope has been drained from you
NowNow, these chains are not made of you
Now, theres no one to hold on to
Now, the hope has been drained from you
NowIt's all these things I say to you
I feel nothing
It's all these things I said I'd do
I do nothing
They're only empty wordsThey're only empty words
