

I Quit

Atozzio

what should i take from this a reason arguement what should i made of this we dont belong together if we are meant to be then why this keep happening the fights per week and no sleep theres no make a sense to mewe started out so strong we promise we will last forever now im weak and i cant move on and no sense of things are getting betterwe keep going back and forth and now this love's on life support and now cant go through this no more so its just one look put in my two week noticei quit (repeat 5x)
put in my two notice
