

Feel The Raindrops

The Adventures

I am injured and confused feel the pressures of my youth.

In my innocence they drag me down there is nothing left to lose.I feel the raindrops on my head Watch the sun 'til my eyes turn red Still I can hear those things you said you said.Through the rain I feel your tears Helps me beat these endless years.
Just one feeling lingers that of sorrow
Now I'm screaming no one hears.

I feel the raindrops on my head
. . . I feel the raindrops on my head

I feel the raindrops on my head
...

You said
you said
you said
you said.
