On Second Thought

Eddie Rabbitt

Some-times a man does things without half thinkin'
And what I saw I did not under-stand
I called you names and said some things that hurt you
And in the heat I started walkin' out that doorBut on second thought I'll just turn a-round in my Tracks
And walk back into your arms where I belong --- I was Wrong
On second thought I apologize for what I've done
'Cause you're the only one I'll always be in love withI know it's not your fault that you're so pretty
And that you turn the head of every man --- I understand
But when I saw you dancing with him I just lost it
I started thinkin' I don't love you any moreBut on second thought I'll just turn a-round in my tracks
And walk back into your arms where I be-long --- I was wrong
On second thought I apologize for what I've done
'Cause you're the only one I'll always be in love withBut when I saw you dancing with him I just lost it
I started thinkin' I don't love you any moreBut on second thought I'll just turn a-round in my tracks
And walk back into your arms where I be-long --- I was wrong
On second thought I apologize for what I've done
'Cause you're the only one I'll always be in love withYes you're the only one I'll always be in love with
