

How Good Love Feels

Jason Cassidy

What are the chances, of running into you today without him by your side, and getting in the way I know that he hurt you, and I know he made you cry trust me girl that's not true love let me show you the other side

I want you to know so bad
how good love feels
he don't care about you baby but I always will
I want to hold you
girl let me show you
what he's giving you ain't real
how good love feels

I'm not standing in the shadows anymore Ill come right out and tell you he's not what your looking for I want to take you to a place you've never been Girl, he's just your lover but I can be your bestfriend

I want you to know so bad
how good love feels
but I always will
I want to hold you
girl let me show you
how good love feels

He's only lying with you he's not telling you the truth he's out chasing other women but i'm only chasing you

I want you to know so bad
how good love feels
but I always will
girl let me show you
how good love feels
