Nobody

J. Moss

[Verse 1]I was looking in the mirror last night but I don?t like what I see
Looking at the reflection but I don?t like what?s looking at me
Too light or too dark or too big or too small
Or always pulling out the measurement stick and forever coming up short
Don?t be ashamed for God has arranged you
Worth more than a billionaire exclusively engineered
[Chorus]Nobody is a nobody God doesn?t make mistakes
Nobody ever takes a place that doesn?t exist in grace
We all may fall (we all may fall) some may stall
But all in all God doesn?t make mistakes
All in all God doesn?t make mistakes
[Verse 2]
I was looking at the TV last night and everyone?s better than me
Big car, big house, big dreams are things my life won?t see
Too shy or too bold or too nice or too cold
Or always looking at a half empty glass and always coming up last...
Don?t be ashamed God has arranged you
Worth more than a billionaire exclusively engineered (Nobody is..)
[Chorus][Hook]Spread your wings (Don't let nobody tell you the battle is lost, it belongs to God)
Lift your head and pray (And don't forget to pray) You will win(look to the hills and get your strength over and over again)
Believe you will get it, get it. (Yes you will cause' God Doesn'make mistakes)
[Hook][Chorus 2x]
