

Shaking Hands

Senses Fail

I will hold your hand
Until this hospital bed becomes a coffin for us
And I will jump right in and I will be buried with you
While I'm still breathing
If all the world is just a stage
Then I would like to die beneath the base I can finally breathe
I don't feel this emptiness anymore
This heart that once was broken is all that I have left to give
We cannot stop the ship from sinking
We cannot stop my shaking hands
Hold onto the only love you have
'Cause you're nothing on your own
Love can make you weak
It can steal the bones from underneath your feet
If all the world is just a stage
Then you must be the blood that's in my veins I can finally breathe
I don't feel this emptiness anymore
This heart that once was broken is all that I have left to give
We cannot stop the ship from sinking
We cannot stop my shaking hands
Hold onto the only love you have
'Cause you're nothing on your own You're slipping away
And now I'm so afraid
That this is the end
Of all that we have been
You're slipping away
And now I feel the pain
If all the world is just a stage
Then I would like to die in your embrace I can finally breathe
I don't feel this emptiness anymore
This heart that once was broken is all that I have left to give
We cannot stop the ship from sinking
We cannot stop my shaking hands
Hold onto the only love you have
'Cause you're nothing on your own
