

A Girl's Just Got To Rock

Beverley Mitchell

She's just 18, changed into her blue jeans
Waiting beneath the Wal-Mart sign
Girlfriend pulls up, bright red pickup
Let's leave this behind
'Cause I got tickets to the Chesney show
We've got the road and the radio
[Chorus:] 'Cause a girl's just got to rock
Ain't got time to punch that clock
Can't be something that i'm not
Say yeah (yeah), yeah (yeah), YEAH
A girl's just got to rock
Countdown begins, heading for the weekend
Can't wait 'til she gets off
Sick of hearing, everybody tell her this is all she's got
'Cause she's smart enough to know,
There's more to life than this rodeo
[Chorus:] 'Cause a girl's just got to rock
Ain't got time to punch that clock

Can't be something that i'm not
Say yeah (yeah), yeah (yeah), YEAH
A girl's just got to rock
She's just a young thing, trying to find her dreams
And spread her wings
[Chorus:] 'Cause a girl's just got to rock
Ain't got time to punch that clock
Can't be something that i'm not
Say yeah (yeah), yeah (yeah), YEAH
A girl's just got to rock
'Cause this girl's just got to rock
Ain't got time to punch that clock
Living on the edge is all i've got
Say yeah (yeah), yeah (yeah), YEAH
A girl's just got to rock
She's just 18, changed into her blue jeans
Standing beneath the Wal-Mart sign
