Catch 22

Whole Wheat Bread

Let's try to work this out
When everything's gone sour
But you still got that somethin'I start to have my doubts
Let's argue for an hour Without sayin' nothin'It's amazing, all the time that you're wasting
I do not have the patience and we're all sick of waiting It's amazing, all these damn accusations all your options are taken now you're stuck on the pavementit's a catch 22
you're damned if you do You dont have a clue, we're already throughReally whats the use?
Should we both cut loose?
Would that make life easy?we both know the truth
I know I need you and i know that you need meits amazing all the time that your wasting
I do not have the patience and we're all sick of waitingIt's a catch 22
you're damned if you do
And I dont have a clue
we're already through (x2)It's a catch 22
you're damned if you do
And I dont have a clue
we're already through
