Necrophagia

confusion starts to fade I lay in a pool of blood cold chills under my skin a sign my life's coming to an endcloud of mist I travel at light speed the tunnel of life escaping me burning grip takes hold as I diesulfuric gas collides with acid rain my body burns everlasting pain
a lost soul searching for domainI beg for mercy my torture never stops endless hemorrhage suffering for the sins of life
