Let's Get Back

Matt Andersen

we used to stand side by side we used to stand for what was right who would've thought we would disagree let's get back to where we used to bewe used love with open arms without a question without alarm now someone's locked the door threw away the key let's get back to where we used to be we fought so long we fought the wrong feels like we've lost our way we'll get back there againwe used hold our heads up high always the first to get in line now we close our eyes and pretend that we don't seewe used to stand by what we'd say not turn around, not walk away i will not run, you've got my guarantee
now time has played it's game on you we've got these scars showing through well that's alright, there's still a chance for you and me let's back to where we used to be
