Master, Faster, Sweet Desaster

Nightfall

Sail in gray
Eyes stare at black
Snow in May
Love you feel but not for me you saidOut of love
I feel like dying
No more your touch
No more to lifeThe sun I've missed
I'm freezing
Lucid soulYou're killing meMaster, faster, sweet disasterHazy dream
Hazy life
Say saw the sun
I say you're lyingWhy you denied you forgot you left by all those castles that I built in the name of your light.
You betrayed what you created like a dream of a mid summer nightI feel, I breathe your skin your smell still haunts me,
I can't escape, I dream of you
Love, pain, emotional paint will never let your rust come through
