You're My Everything

Mort Dixon

Got the sun in the morning
I got the moon at night
I got your arms around me, everything's alright
Holding you tight is how I like to spend the rest of my life
Feel the warm breeze blowin' down through the trees
I got your love beside me, child that's all I need
My heart and soul is wide open to you
Nobody but you sweet baby
No one but you yeah
Chorus:
Got to know that I want you baby
Got to know that I need you darling
I just want to say
You're my everything
Like in all the songs I sing
Of happiness and joy you bring
I just want to say
You're my everything
Just wanna hold you, how I adore you
You got that special touch
That I long for oh so much
Oh I'm amazed at how you right all that's Wrong in my world
All I am and I hope to be
Is 'cause of you and what you do
You bring out the best in me

My heart and soul is wide open darling
Nobody but you sweet baby
No one but you yeah
Chorus:
Got to know that I want you baby
Got to know that I need you darling
I just want to say
You're my everything
Like in all the songs I sing
Of happiness and joy you bring
I just want to say
You're my everything

Child you possess all that a true love should be
'cause I'm forever lovin' you
You keep lovin' me yeah oh baby
Got to know that I want you baby
Got to know that I need you darling
I just want to say
You're my everything
Like in all the songs I sing
Of happiness and joy you bring
I just want to say
You're my everything
