New Age Messiah

Edguy

Countless pointing fingers
A nameless crowd too swollen to analyse
Takes a rise out of the stranger
Don't know where he's come from Bumfuck raises birds of paradise
They surmise- very wiseOne night they witnessed
How he lit his backdoor winds
Fire turned the night into day and they prayed, fell on their knees
And turned their glances off his face,
And they knew they have been chosen to obeyPardon me
Raise a graven image
I'm the new messiah for the world
You can't see the splendor of my nimbus
But I'm the new messiah for the world
But I'm the new messiah for the blind
For the blindThe word shall spread like wildfire
Here you got a new messiah holding sway
Delightful game
Don't you give away: I'm no redeemer
But bring me grapes and diamonds right away
And a maid to lay...One day oblivion will swallow up my fame
The common run of mankind will forget my name
Forget my name
Like a phoenix rising someone else is gonna reign
Till then you know that you are to obey mePardon me...Gluttony and extasy, there's velvet on my dais
Lions, ladies, rotaries they never spare with praise
A million pointing fingers
Have turned to clapping hands
Now I'm off to Betty Ford,
See you in hell my friendsPardon fucking me, who the fucking fuck is Jesus
I'm the motherfucking new messiah for the fucking world :)Pardon me...
