Heavy Metal In The Night

Dream Evil

I'm gonna fight, in the Metal night
My guardian angel is my sword
I hear the call, I see the light
I'm gonna give my life for my lord
The quest is long and the end is nearI sail away in seas of doom
My shield is strong and I got no fear
I'm gonna face the enemy soonThe night is cold and the air is clear
The enemy could be anywhere (beware)
The serpent's eyes enlarge with fear
It's all about for those who dareThunder! Lighting! Fighting! Heavy Metal in the night!
Monsters! Dying! By axes! Bleeding in the burning light!Face to face with an army from hell
A sudden flash the battle is on
So swing the axe and cast the spell
Kill or be killed - dead and goneThe taste of Metal is the taste of blood
The enemies have got their reward
We buried them in seas of mud
They've felt the rage of my swordThe night is cold and the air is clear
The enemy could be anywhere (beware)
The serpent's eyes enlarge with fear
It's all about for those who dareThunder! Lighting! Fighting! Heavy Metal in the night!
Monsters! Dying! By axes! Bleeding in the burning light!Die, die, die, killing in the dead of night!!!Thunder!
Lighting! Fighting! Heavy Metal in the night!
Monsters! Dying! By axes! Bleeding in the burning light!
