Naked

Jon Bon Jovi

My friend had a girlfriend, she liked her drink
Sucked the head off her lager, threw me a wink
And she said to me, "Buddy, what's your sign?"
I was off, I was runnin', knocked me clean off my feet
Her tongue kept on sellin' what any blind man could see
And I just kept on stumbling through the stop signs
She said, "What you hiding underneath that shirt?"
Right behind the buttons there's a heart that hurts
Adam's evening left the curse, take it off, make it work
Naked, naked, just get back to basics
Naked, face it, you can't fake it when you're
Naked, face it, all I'm saying
The tail you been chasing, put the K back in the kink
Threw a coin in her jukebox, I started to think
She just smiled and offered me a peace sign
How far you gonna run in those designer shoes
The soul with holes ain't gonna be the one you lose
I don't know which one is worse, Adam, me or you
Naked, naked, just get back to basics
Naked, face it, you can't fake it when you're
Naked, face it, all I'm saying
Take it, embrace it, baby here we are
Can't you almost taste it
Naked, naked, just get back to basics
Naked, face it, you can't fake it when you're
Naked, naked, naked, naked
[Incomprehensible]
