

Hate On Her

K. Michelle

There's a smile without a home
There's a heart that can't beat no more
How could she be the one you want
When I'm giving you so much
In this house we made are own
You have torn it down to nothing
And for the moment I was strong
You let it all go Now she's calling your phone
Rolling her eyes at me like I'm the one who did wrong
Tryna play my role But I can't even hate on her
'Cause I know you got no heart
I can't even hate on her
'Cause I know how low you go
And you made it feel right (made it feel it right)
When you know you was wrong (know you was wrong)
So I can't even hate on her
(Hate on her) See that moment it can't be erased
Memories that can't be replaced (can't be replaced)
How could you even look me in my face
Years ruined in one day
Oh girl she don't even know
That grown boys don't ever grow (grow)
She will always, she will always
Feel alone So when she's calling my phone
Next time I'mma let her know
She can have you I'm gone
Man love can be so cold But I can't even hate on her
'Cause I know you got no heart
I can't even hate on her
'Cause I know how low you go
And you made it feel right (made it feel it right)
When you know you was wrong (know you was wrong)
So I can't even hate on her
(Hate on her) Oh I've giving my everything
Oh but you took it all from me
Oh I hope she can be all you need
'Cause I can't be it But I can't even hate on her
'Cause I know you got no heart
I can't even hate on her

'Cause I know how low you go
And you made it feel right (made it feel it right)
When you know you was wrong (know you was wrong)
So I can't even hate on her
(Hate on her) Oh I've given my everything
Oh but you took it all from me
