

Nothin' Burns Like A Memory

Heidi Newfield

Five years since you went away
Hurts like it was yesterday
I play with fire and youre gonna pay
Lord knows I am tired of payin I am sick of livin in the past
You took my heart and I want it back
You were my first but you didnt last
You just caused me frustration Tonight I am gonna set myself free
Ive got a brand new recipe And its a, a can or two of gasoline
One match and a mighty a big flame
All the heartache and sufferin
Is gonna melt inside of me A picture book and a pile of your clothes
You and me goin up in smoke
A sure fire way of lettin go
Yeah, nothin burns like a memory Ive got a bottle of 80 proof
Ill tell you what were gonna do
Well, its a two for me and one for you
Honey, heres to liberation No more pain and misery
I finally found my remedy And its a, a can or two of gasoline
One match and a mighty a big flame
All the heartache and sufferin
Is gonna melt inside of me A picture book and a pile of your clothes
You and me goin up in smoke
A sure fire way of lettin go
Yeah, nothin burns like a memory Burn, baby, burn
Burn, baby, burn
Burn, baby, burn
Burn, baby, burn You take a, a can or two of gasoline
One match and a mighty a big flame
All the heartache and sufferin
Is gonna melt inside of me A picture book and a pile of your clothes
You and me goin up in smoke
A sure fire way of lettin go
Yeah, nothin, ooh, nothin, oh, nothin
Oh, burns like a memory

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>