

Making Plans

The Mercuryemen

Stuck in a hole,
With damp on the walls,
A one room place, three by four,
Believe me,
I'm making plans,
I've been waiting for a break that just won't come,
I've been looking for a job, but I 'ain't found one,
Just hold on,
I'm making plans,

And I promise you that I won't let you down,
This time next year,
We'll be a million miles away from here,
Now that I can see it all so clear,
We're going to have it all,
This time next year

The heating's bust,
We're out in the cold, now
I can't make a call, now they've cut off the phone,
Believe me,
I'm making plans,
'N' you say that you're leaving, for a life of your own,
But can't raise a kid if we don't have a home,
But hold on, I'm making plans,
And I promise you, that I won't let you down,
This time next year,
We'll be a million miles away from here,
Now that I can see it all so clear,
We're going to have it all,
This time next year,
We'll be living out the dream we made,
All your faith is going to be repaid,
We're going to have it all,
Ohhhhhhhh

We're going to have it all,
Ohhhhh, ohhhhh, ohhhhh,

Ohhh we're going to have it all,

Stuck in a hole,
With damp on the walls,
A one room place, three by four,
But trust me, I'm making plans,

This time next year,
We'll be a million miles away from here,
Now that I can see it all so clear,
We're going to have it all,
This time next year,
We'll be living out the dream we made,
All your faith is going to be repaid,
We're going to have it all,
Ohhhhhhhh we're going to have it all,
Ohhhh, ohhhh.
