Modern Drift

Efterklang

I can keep my hurt inside
when the modern drift is all I have.

You can put my hurt aside,
but the modern drift is all I have.

When the moment dies
and I come to you
with a broken lie
that I made for you will I let you see you're not with the living ghosts?

Will they catch your sight
or the back of you?

I can keep my hurt inside
when the modern drift is all I have.

You can put my hurt aside,
but the modern drift is all I have.

And the peace-sounds ring
but we're all afraid.
They will play your hands
like a puppeteer.

And the dreams aren't true but we know it???we know that tune that the angel sang to the hollow death:

"I can keep my hurt inside
when the modern drift is all I have.

"You can put my hurt aside,
but the modern drift is all I have.

"It's all I have".
