Skipping

Lou Barlow

Doors lead to other doors
Roads lead to other roads
They are simple they just happen
They're simple they take care of themselves
They're simple they just happen to be there

Embarrassed try one too
Marvelous lousy could this be your safest way
Ancestral in its own deficiency
A deficit of skipping

Skipping
Skipping I left you there skipping
Ripping ropes from the Belgian wharfs
Breathless Beauxillous griffin once removed seemed dwarfed
They're simple in that they happen to be there

Embarrassed try one too
Marvelous lousy could this be your safest way
Ancestral in its own deficiency
A deficit of skipping

Skip-skip, skip, skipping
Skip-skip, skip, skipping, skipping
Skip-skip, skip, skipping
Skip-skip, skip, skip-skipping
Skip-skip, skip, skipping
Skipping I left you there, I left you there
Skip-skip skip-skipping, skipping, skipping

Skipping I left you there
Skipping skipping
Skipping I left you there
