

Taken

Rhonda Vincent

Taken.

When I look into your eyes I see my life
And for the first time and I forget to take a breath.
So overwhelmed, so completely shaken.I'm taken.

When you kiss my face the world just falls away
and I feel so safe jlying in your arms.
In the dark my sleeping heart awakens.

I'm taken.You get to me.

Some place deep inside you run to me.

There's no where left to hide and I lose me

Somewhere in the two of us there's nothing but our sweet love and ITaken.

With all of you and I can't help myself.
I can't imagine love with anybody else.
In my heart since you found your way.

I'm taken.You get to me.

Some place deep inside you run to me.

There's no where else to hide and I lose me.

Somewhere in the two of us there's nothing but our sweet love and ITaken.

Oh, I'm taken.

I'm taken.
