

Everybody's Friend

Jane's Addiction

Hey man, where did you go?
Thought I, but I guess
I don't know you, I gave it my heart
You looked to take it apart
Hey man, what did you do?
Walked away, we weren't through
Last time was a fake shakin' head
Now I think it must be said
Hey man
Can't be everybody's friend
Hey man
Can't be everybody's friend
Man of peace, man of war
Tell me who knows more?
People gatherin' there by the well
I think we should meet up again
Hey man
Can't be everybody's friend
Hey man
Can't be everybody's friend
Hey man
Can't be everybody's friend
Ain't no way man
To be everybody's friend
