Temperature's Rising

Nina Sky

Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
Oh, oh, oh
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
Oh, oh, ohTemperature's rising my body's screaming for you
Your eyes pulled me in my soul it's trembling
As we move closer you're innocent no longer
Temptations taking over, I wanna feel you inside of meLet me take off your clothes tear up your body's soul
Hold on and don't let go, I'm losing all control
I wanna hold you close capture your mind and soul
Endearing words we told, I'm losing all control
I'm losing all control, all controlI want your body badly baby
Just the thought it makes me crazy
As you touch those fragile places
Ooh, ohSitting here anticipating got my body waiting
Wanting to exchange my love for yours
Ooh you make me scream harmonious melodies
Our souls combine creation sense and needs, ohI want your body badly baby
Just the thought it makes me crazy
As you touch those fragile places
Ooh, ohI want your body badly baby
Just the thought it makes me crazy
As you touch those fragile places
Ooh, ohDeeper than the ocean and wider than any sea
You make me feel high like heaven
It's more than a dream come true to me
You're like the sun brighting my day happy ending of any storyWith an angels glow you bring my soul
Joy, joy, joy, joy
With an angels glow you bring my soul
Joy, joy, joy, joyWith an angels glow you bring my soul
Joy, joy, joy, joy
With an angels glow you bring my soul
Joy, joy, joy, joyI want your body badly baby
Just the thought makes me crazy
As you touch those fragile places
Ooh, ohI want your body badly baby
Give me your body baby
I need your body baby
OhI want your body badly baby
Just the thought it makes me crazy

As you touch those fragile places
OohOh, oh, I want your body badly
I need your body badly
Give me your body baby
Oh, oh
