Everything Is Cold

Lycia

life is so bare, life is so, so bare we must not run, must not fight we must stay here forever everything is cold, everything is cold i am such a child, just let me take this away... again everyday i pray for love of... life, every day i pray for love of...
life is so bare, life is so, so bare
i don't think that i can take this again everything is cold, everything is cold i am such a liar, just let me throw this away... again everyday i pray for love of...
la la la la laa laa...
