

Untutored Youth

The Hives

We are the untutored youth and here's the proof.
Don't want to know anything we don't and it's the truth
We are the untutored youth
And they lost out.
If you can't hear me just start looking at my mouth
We are the untutored youth
And so are you
You might not like it but there's nothing you can do
We are the untutored youth
Don't even try.

No use in knowing all the when's and why's.
And if I really wanted to learn something I'd listen to more records and I do, we do, you do soÃ¢?Â! come on
And that's the truth.

When it feels like all you ever do is loose here is the catch.
There's nowhere you're gonna be a perfect match we won't fit in.
But there is no way in hell they are gonna win and that's it.
Not even gloves come with a perfect fit.

And when people tell me what is ok and what is not, it should not be an unexpected scene seeing I extend my middle right hand digit and say: Hey would you like lemon or lime with that piece of advice mister? Come on

We are the untutored youth and here's the proof.
Don't want to know anything we don't and it's the truth
We are the untutored youth
And they lost out.
If you can't hear me just start looking at my mouth
We are the untutored youth
And so are you
You might not like it but there's nothing you can do
We are the untutored youth
Don't even try.

No use in knowing all the when's and why's.
We are the untutored youth
