

Bluebird

John Lee Hooker

Bluebird, please, take this letter down south for me
Oh, bluebird, take this letter down south for me
Don't you two stop flyin' till you find little Liza Belle for meLord, she way down, she's way down in Jackson,
Tennessee
Bluebird, she's way down south in Jackson, Tennessee
She may not be home, but, please, knock upon her doorBluebird, bluebird, please, do this for me
Oh, bluebird, please, do this for me
If you see my baby, tell her I want her to come back home to me
