Undertow

Genesis

Curtains are drawn

Now the fire warms the roomMeanwhile outside

Wind from the north-east chills the air

It will soon be snowing out thereAnd some, there are cold

They prepare for a sleepless night

Maybe, this will be their last fightBut we're safe in each other's embrace

All fears go as I look on your faceBetter think awhile

Or I may never think again

If this were the last day of your life, my friend

Tell me, what do you think you would do then? Stand up to the blow that fate has struck upon you

Make the most of all, you still have coming to you

Lay down on the ground and let the tears run from you

Crying to the grass and trees and heaven finally on your kneesLet me live again, let life come find me wanting

Spring must strike again against the shield of winter

Let me feel once more the arms of love surround me

Telling me the danger's past, I need not fear the icy blast againLaughter, music and perfume linger here

And there, and there

Wine flows from flask to glass and mouths

As it soothes, confusing our doubtsAnd soon we feel

Why do a single thing today

There's tomorrow sure as I'm hereSo the days, they turn into years

And still no tomorrow appears Better think awhile

Or I may never think again

If this were the last day of your life, my friend

Tell me, what do you think you would do thenStand up to the blow that fate has struck upon you

Make the most of all, you still have coming to you

Lay down on the ground and let the tears run from you

Crying to the grass and trees and heaven finally on your kneesLet me live again, let life come find me wanting

Spring must strike again against the shield of winter

Let me feel once more the arms of love surround me

Telling me the danger's past, I need not fear the icy blast again
