Goodnight

The Birthday Massacre

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

First place on a classroom wall
Every turn of the face can help to break
The fall from a domestic disgrace
Every rumor displaced is lost and foundA lack of discipline, one hand to cut the other
So unprofessional
You're not a friend, you're just a lover
Nothing exceptional, this is correctionalMirror on the wall, frame the picture
Reflect this kiss to wish us all goodnightFirst day in a victim's chair
Every surface replaced can help to keep
You fair for a corrected gaze
Every feature displayed will match your crowdA loss of innocence, one hand to wash the other
Be a perfectionist
You're nothing if you're just another
Something material, this isn't personalMirror on the wall, frame the picture
Reflect this kiss to wish us all goodnightWe're all dancing to the same sad song
And we're not sleeping but it won't take longIllicit conviction, confessions incomplete
Correction, submissive restriction
Instructions will repeat directionMirror on the wall, frame the picture
Reflect this kiss to wish us all goodnight
