The Unforgiving Blade

HammerFall

When the sky is turnin' black you fear the dawn
Your inner voice compels you but you're all alone
Thy secret sense lies still obscure within your shattered dreams
And all you can do is dreamLong ago you spoke the words of heresy
Twenty years of runnin' brings back memories
All your wisdom made me seek the truth that lied beyond
My inner dreamsFollow the one that fell from the crimson skies
I remember the words I can never forget your demiseAnd now you're worlds fallin' down
(Fallin')
For all the games that you played
(Fallin')
And as you're souls fallin' down
(Fallin')
You're meetin' the unforgivin' bladeShould have seen it comin' when you rolled the dice
Deeper and deeper fallin' away from your paradiseInnocent eyes observin' the crimson skies
Awaitin' for someone to heal the burnin' liesAnd now you're worlds fallin' down
(Fallin')
For all the games that you played
(Fallin')
And as you're souls fallin' down
(Fallin')
You're meetin' the unforgivin' bladeAnd now you're worlds fallin' down
(Fallin')
For all the games that you played
(Fallin')
And as you're souls fallin' down
(Fallin')
You're meetin' the unforgivin' bladeAnd now you're worlds fallin' down
(Fallin')
For all the games that you played
(Fallin')
And as you're souls fallin' down
(Fallin')
You're meetin' the unforgivin' bladeAnd now you're worlds fallin' down
(Fallin')
For all the games that you played
(Fallin')
And as you're souls fallin' down
(Fallin')

You're meetin' the unforgivin' bladeAnd now you're worlds fallin' down
(Fallin')
And as you're souls fallin' down
(Fallin')
Unforgivin'
Unforgivin' blade
