You're a Heartbreaker

Widowmaker

You're a heartbreaker
You're a love faker
A heartbreaker playin' with fire
You're a tear snatcher
You're a quarrel patcher
But you can't break my heart anymore
For I've just found someone else
Who's sure to take your place
Someone I can always trust
And to fill this empty space
You're a heartbreaker
You're a love faker
But you can't break my heart anymore
You're a smooth talker
You're a real cool walker
But now you have talked out of turn
You're a high stepper
You're a eye catcher
But you won't catch my glances anymore
For I've just found someone else
Who's sure to take your place
Someone I can always trust
And to fill this empty space
You're a heartbreaker
You're a love faker
But you can't break my heart anymore
You're a heart breaker
You're a love faker
A heartbreaker playin' with fire
You're a tear snatcher
You're a quarrel patcher
But you can't break my heart anymore
For I've just found someone else
Who's sure to take your place
Someone I can always trust
And to fill this empty space
You're a heartbreaker
You're a love faker
But you can't break my heart anymore
