Campfire

Satellite Stories

It's 7am
and the letters I send won't follow you home
it's too late to goWaited all summer to get to you
campfire outside we fell and kissed there were only few words I said to you
sun shade, this lake one to cherish (2x)Delorean, saw your name in the sand Delorean, make me understandserene, clear water all set for you
sapphire in your eyes
made this turn bliss
there were only a few things I knew from you Sunset, undressed,
your name perished (2x)
