

Campfire

Satellite Stories

It's 7am
and the letters I send won't follow you home
it's too late to go Waited all summer to get to you
campfire outside we fell and kissed there were only few words I said to you
sun shade, this lake one to cherish (2x) Delorean, saw your name in the sand Delorean, make me understand serene, clear water all set for you
sapphire in your eyes
made this turn bliss
there were only a few things I knew from you
Sunset, undressed,
your name perished (2x)
