My So-Called Life

The Ataris

Make your first impression brace yourself
It's who you are
Try to find yourself it takes some time
Don't be alarmed
A million questions fill your mind
You feel unsatisfied
But don't sit down it's time
To figure out the reasons why that I
Can't seem to find my way back home
But I'm trying
This time I think I've gone too far
But I'm trying this time
Is this really what you want to be?
This time I'm trying
Paint a picture of a place
That's deep inside your mind
Look for answers to the questions
And the reasons why
I'm feeling happy and unsatisfied
At the same time
So light a cigarette and take a drink
And you'll be fine but I
Can't seem to find my way back home
But I'm trying
This time I think I've gone too far
But I'm trying this time
Is this really what you want to be?
This time I'm trying, this time
I'm trying, I'm trying
This time I think I've gone too far
And what have you got for me this time?
Are you leaving me out to dry?
And where have you gone, my so-called life?
'Cause I can't find you anywhere
This time I must make some decisions
This time I must make some decisions
This time I'm trying this time
Is this really what you want to be?
This time I'm trying, this time

Is this really what you want to be?
This time I'm trying, this time
This time make or break, let lose this dead weight
No room for mistake you feel me, you feel me
This time make or break, let lose this dead weight
No room for mistake you can feel me, you feel me
