Wake Up

Fightstar

If you have the answers to all of my questions
Why are you here?
Turn around and face me now
I promise you they'll let you inI don't mean to make you so upset
But the air is so thin that I'm losing sleep
Blackened and unrested
Replace your armor to make this standBring me 'round to let me down
(Take this forever, so I can sleep quiet)
I'll wait around to let you in (What has begun?)I don't mean to make you so upset
But the air is so thin that I'm losing sleep
I don't mean to make you so upset
But the air is so thin that I'm losing sleepWake up, wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake upWake up, wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up, wake upYou laid me down to sleep
