

Million Tears

The Springfields

I wanna know where you belong I wanna know why I sing this song I try to show how much I feel is that a dream or is it real? I never look where you belong until I'm gonna sing my song. Is it a lie or is it true?
So many tears I've cried for you Oh ho oh ho a million tears for you
Oh ho oh ho a million tears for you
Oh ho oh ho a million tears for you
Oh ho oh ho a million tears for you A Million tears that I have cried I wish you were right by my side. I try to show how much I care believe in me I will be there. I never knew where you belong whenever you just hear my song. Is it a lie or is it true?
So many tears I've cried for you. Oh ho oh ho a million tears for you
