

Walk the Edge

Alex M.O.R.P.H.

The night keeps reaching on and on
Kill the sun, bury the dawn
A race begins that no one ever seems to win
The line remains unbroken
Smashing the doors wide open
All of my fears are blown away
My eyes are blinded
By the ice and snow
I walk the edge
(I walk the edge)
Just to feel alive
Lost in the endless night
I walk the edge 'till the end of time
Flesh combining into one
Now the nightmare has begun
Still I show no fear
I feel alive when death is near
Feel the rain wash over me
I am alive, I am set free
Now time stands still
The silence just before the kill
Can't keep myself from falling
(Falling)
The afterlife keeps calling
It grows closer everyday
My eyes are blinded

By the ice and snow
I walk the edge
(I walk the edge)
Just to feel alive
Lost in the endless night
Can't still the hands of time
I walk the edge
(I walk the edge)
Just to feel alive
Still trapped between the lines
I walk the edge 'till the end of time
I walk the edge

(I walk the edge)
Just to feel alive
Lost in the endless night
Can't still the hands of time
I walk the edge
(I walk the edge)
Just to feel alive
Still trapped between the lines
I walk the edge 'till the end of time
Until the end of time
Trapped between the lines
But my heart is still racing
I walk the edge
I walk the edge
