

Lilith Immaculate

Cradle of Filth

Church bells resounded like judgment day
As they were making love
In the rain swept graveyard
She fucked him hard, silhouetted by flame
A monsoon tigress set upon prey
Fall for the love of me
Crawl for the love of me
Drool for the love of my virulent sway
I grow more master, the faster the days
Lilith immaculate
This delectable reaper
Her eyes were profound
Drawing him in deeper
Until he was drowned
Hurled on the shore
Of the world underground
Lilith immaculate
Mortal kind, a morbid wine
For this dark moon goddess
And freed to stretch her claws
This beautiful whore
Would be brutally honest
Tortuous one, taboos undone
A glittering star on a sea of myriad waves
And a thickening mist, a seductress
Leading lovesick hearts astray
Lilith
In the throes of orgasm
She bucked and he broke
At the height of the storm
The chaos they'd smote
Burning behind her
In arabesque smoke
Framed a vision transformed
As she sucked from his throat
Victoria smiled, her now golden eyes
Possessed a regal bearing
Of omnipotent power
From wet lips to her smoldering thighs
Her beauty perfected and her will agonized
Fall for the love of me
Crawl for the love of me
Drool for the love of my virulent sway
I grow more master, the faster the days
Lilith Immaculate
With dread single purpose
Her mind told him stay
She strode through the fire

Desire aflame
She murdered the nuns
In such horrible ways
Lilith ImmaculateThat night we lay entwined on hay
Inside a soldier's barn
Her panting breath an opiate
As in her bolder graspI caught the scent of desert sands
The holy lands, the fall of reason
But only when I smelt the blood
Did I fear her colder handI am darkness, I am sin
The Queen of lust invited in Reborn at last to cast my
Fecund shadow on this worldYou shall worship me enslaved
For many lovers shall I crave
And in return, I'll gladly pave
Your psycho path with pearlsFor I have been grating
And waiting so long to find
The most perfect hostess, close to me
Whose thin-ice troubled mindWas like a cracked, black ornate mirror
To slip right through in time
When at last I wore Harmonia's necklace
The cursed twin serpents mineTortuous one, debauchery won
The attention of Emperors, Princes and Tsars
For the toll of her kiss, no soul could dismiss
The advance of her throne from afarThis English rose with traits of those Who graced the harems of the east
Adorned with thorns, she raised the horns
And scarlet hems to wasted priestsFall for the love of me
Crawl for the love of me
Drool for the love of my virulent sway
I grow more master, the faster the days
Lilith ImmaculateThis delectable reaper
Her eyes were profound
They drew him in deeper
Until he was drowned
Hurled on the shore
Of the world underground
Lilith ImmaculateFall for the love of me
Crawl for the love of me
Drool for the love of my virulent sway
I grow more master, the faster the days
Lilith ImmaculateThe flutes and sweet wine
Of her voice anodyne
Her power was growing
Every hour malign

The truth, Lilith's kingdom
Drew closer with time
Lilith Immaculate
