Blinking Pigs

Little Dragon

Phantom legs and blinking pigs haunting me
My long lost love and the memories of youThese nights are haunting me
I don't wanna run, I don't wanna leave
Now that you're standing closer
I don't wanna run, I don't wanna leaveWas distance moan and a smell of home haunting me
From the clouds above and the memory of youThough these nights are haunting me
I don't wanna run, I don't wanna leave
Now that you're standing closer
I don't wanna run, I don't wanna leaveThough these nights are haunting me
I don't wanna run, I don't wanna leave
Now that you're standing closer
I don't wanna run, I don't wanna leave
