

Sirens and Satellites

Ego Likeness

After she wrote me a whisper
In the back of the crowd
What used to be in the silence
 Gets lost in sound
Your dying for my attention
I'll put my ear to the ground
Searching for some sort of clevering
 Am i listening, too loud
I dont want to be falling away
I dont want to be fanning away
Im reaching out so you'll find a way, to save me

* chorus *

You are breaking the noise
And i'll start to hear your voice
And i'll laugh, theres no other choice
 But to love you
Im hanging on to every little word now

I've had enough of the chaos
Inside the side of your cloud
I've lost my sense of direction
 And i'm fighting to get out
I hear your heart in the distance
 A love lost in the sound
Recalling some sort of memories
 And I know i'm found

* chorus *

ohhh.....woahhh....ohhhhhh....ohhh.....

I don't want to be falling away
And i don't want to be fanning away
I'm reaching out so you'll find a way, to save me

* chorus *

~ instrumentall ~

I'm hanging on to every little word now
