In Da House

Kottonmouth Kings

Yeah
Come on come on come on We still in this Alright
You know thier aint no party like a kottonmouth party
'cause a Kottonmouth Party dont Stop Thier aint no need to fuss or fight
were all here as one everybody unite
Because the Kottonmouth Kings is in the house tonight
you know the Kottonmouth Kings is in the house tonight.
Now we aint out to do nobody wrong
we just some stoners gettin by high playin our songs
The Kottonmouth Kings is in the house tonight
you know the Kottonmouth Kings is in the house tonight.
You know Kottonmouth come through all blazed up pants sag hat high rolled in our raised trucks.
Not givin a fuck we sparkin pot on the curb smokin on cigars but they really filled with herb.
Some nice green fluffy shit that we got from 86 always got the bomb chronic always got the bomb hits.

We took our last rips and headed to the back door straight to the stealth bar V.I.P. second floor i say capt N Coke you know its time to get loose DJ B Spinin' Snoop Dog Gin and Juice and i was smokin on some indo chillin in the corner straight mackin on a hoe yeah she look good and she was good to go so we hooked em up and we took em home
The girl had a twin it was the craziest shit
The party bout to begin when we get to Loc's crib Thier aint no need to fuss or fight
were all here as one everybody unite
Because the Kottonmouth Kings is in the house tonight
you know the Kottonmouth Kings is in the house tonight.
Now we aint out to do nobody wrong
we just some stoners gettin by high playin our songs
The Kottonmouth Kings is in the house tonight
you know the Kottonmouth Kings is in the house tonight.

Now its last call the bars closin down
We got the girls
